3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department of ecology, in 4 cooperation with the Washington department of transportation, shall 5 convene a stakeholder group comprised of legislators from both houses 6 of the largest two caucuses of the legislature, cities, counties, 7 regional transportation planning organizations, business, and 8 environmental representatives for the purposes of continuing the work 9 of the transportation implementation working group in developing 10 alternatives necessary to meet the overall state greenhouse gas 11 emissions reductions established in RCW 70.235.020 from the 12 transportation sector.

13 (2) The Washington department of transportation shall report to 14 the legislature by September 3, 2010, with findings on recent trends 15 in levels of vehicle miles traveled state-wide and projections of 16 future trends; what additional strategies should be considered in 17 reducing emissions from the transportation sector, including policies 18 that will reduce vehicles miles traveled; and determination of the 19 probable environmental and economic costs and benefits to the state 20 and its citizens from the reduction of vehicle miles traveled in 21 implementation of policies designed to meet the goals of RCW
22 47.01.440."
